

DISTRICT 7450

Rotary Leader

Volume 3 Number 3

September 2008

Message from DG Joel

My fellow Rotarians,

September is half over and summer almost gone. Hard to believe we are about to enter the fall season.

District 7450 had the pleasure of hosting the Zone Institute held at the Hyatt Regency in Penn's Landing, Philadelphia first week in September.

We were honored by International President D. K. Lee and his wife, Young Ja's presence at the Institute. I had the distinct pleasure of introducing D. K. to Rotarians of Zones 31 and 32 at the Saturday luncheon. We were encouraged by D. K.'s words of wisdom and motivated to convey his message to Rotarians of District 7450.

Moving forward, a District Conference Committee has been created. Now that the summer months are over, the committee will meet on a regular basis to work on creating a fabulous District Conference April 17, 18 and 19, 2009 at Longwood Gardens in Kennett Square. We will also utilize the Mendenhall Inn for our plenary and break-out sessions.

In the past seven years, Jeb Bland has spent over 120 days in Haiti traveling there three to four times a year. Often he is accompanied by his wife, Gail, and small groups of people he takes along to help in the ongoing work in this impoverished nation.

Haiti is the poorest country in the Western Hemisphere where 80 percent of the population lives below the poverty line. Over 10 percent of Haitian children will not live to five years of age. Malnutrition is the second leading cause of death for these children.

We can make a difference... one day at a time

Buses will be provided for transportation between Longwood Gardens and Mendenhall Inn.

If you would like to participate on the committee or make suggestions, please contact our chairpersons: Bonnie Korengel - 610-444-3222 ; Dave McKeon - 610-212-6505 ; or Joyce Chesney - 610-761-8446.

On September 1, a lease was signed for our new District 7450 office in Wayne. This office will be utilized for District Committee meetings and other important District business. For more information, please call 610-405-3490 or e-mail info@rotary7450.org.

Also on the horizon, I will be formulating a Nominating Committee to interview prospective District Governor applicants for the 2011-2012 Rotary year.

District 7450 has much to accomplish in the coming years ahead. The District will need a dedicated Rotarian with strong leadership skills to motivate and guide our "Family of Rotary" into the future.

Get involved and spread the Rotary word. Let's "Make Dreams Real" for those less fortunate in our communities and around the world.

Remember one thing: We can't save the world, but we can make a difference in one life, one day at a time!

From the District Governor

According to UNICEF, 15 percent of all children are orphaned or abandoned. 200,000 of these children live in orphanages. HIV/AIDS has also contributed to a growth in child-headed households as parents and potential guardians die.

The Rotary Club of Twin Valley and a very generous anonymous donor have teamed with Jeb Bland of Elverson to help the children. During his ongoing work in Haiti, Bland shares his skills to aid the orphans.

The House of Hope is a Christian orphanage, located at La Pointe, about nine miles from Port de Paix. It is affiliated with U E B H Mission. An American missionary nurse, Caroline Bradshaw, who had a special love for Haitian children, founded the orphanage. It was in Haiti's Northwest Department, that she began her work with orphans. The children came to her with various ailments and needs, some were handicapped, some were abandoned by their parents, most of them suffering from tuberculoses, and some affected by unknown disorders. Today this orphanage is still running providing care to over 75 children. One of the co-directors is a Haitian born woman who, as a child was brought to House of Hope suffering from TB of the spine.

The Twin Valley Rotary Club is partnering with Bland in two projects – the purchase of a vehicle and installation of a water purification system.

The House of Hope does not own a vehicle. They pay by the mile to rent a Land Cruiser from missionaries working in the same town. The vehicle was primarily used to drive twice a week to Port de Paix, a town about nine miles away. Recently, as part of a program by the Haitian government to restore tighter control over the nation's ports of entry, the port at Port de Paix was closed. As a result of this action, the staff members of the House of Hope are forced to drive greater distances (possibly four or five hours) to acquire the necessary supplies to run the orphanage. Paying for a vehicle by the mile was no longer fiscally responsible so purchasing a vehicle became a necessity.

Local missionaries, who owned the Land Cruiser that the House of Hope was renting, are ready to purchase a new Land Cruiser. These Land Cruisers are heavy-duty workhorses not the type that is often seen in America. The missionaries were willing to sell their vehicle to the House of Hope. This vehicle has been carefully maintained and is in excellent condition. The vehicle is a 1998 Toyota Land Cruiser driven only 18,000 miles. The Twin Valley Rotary Club donated $2,000 and the anonymous local donor contributed $8,000 to purchase the vehicle.

The Twin Valley Rotary Club also is committed to supply the materials for a water purification system for the House of Hope where nearly 80 children, young people and staff members live. Children in Haiti have the highest death and disease rate of any children in our hemisphere. Many die in their first year. Some die from malnutrition or typhus or chronic diarrhea - all waterborne diseases. With clean water they will live.

The system will provide filtered water using pre-filter to remove dirt, a secondary filter to screen out finer particles, and an ultraviolet filter to remove water-borne organisms. The purified water will be used for cooking and drinking.

Recently, the well that supplies House of Hope with water, fell into disrepair. Bland is awaiting repair to the well that supplies water to the orphanage. On one of his future missions to Haiti he expects to include a plumber to install the purification system. If you would like more information or wish to offer support, please contact Jeb Bland at jebbland@gmail.com.

Central Chester County Club partners with Rotary Club in Pakistan to fund carpet-weaving training

By Vanessa N. Glavinskas
Rotary International News

Rotarians in Pakistan and the United States are using the centuries-old craft of carpet weaving to help inhabitants of a town in Afghanistan make better lives for themselves. Spin Boldak, in southern Afghanistan near the Pakistani border, has certainly felt the effects of the war. Thousands face a daily struggle to survive or find work.

Past RI Director Lynmar Brock helped connect the Rotary Club of Abaysin Central in Peshawar, Pakistan with the Rotary Club of Central Chester County to establish a project, to teach residents the art and marketable skill of carpet weaving.

After Brock returned from a visit to Pakistan, the Pakistan Rotary Club wrote a matching grant application and sent it to Brock, who helped them find an international partner, Central Delaware Country Rotary Club.

For centuries, experienced weavers in Afghanistan have painstakingly created a heritage of rugs, with many families passing on their designs for generations. A new 3 x 5-foot rug made by an amateur can sell for US$50 at a local bazaar; overseas, the decorative carpets sell for far more.

Skills in carpet weaving in war-torn areas of Afghanistan are an immediate source of earning, either in a carpet weaving factory, or one can start his or her own facility, explains Rotarian Vasanth Prabhu of the Central Chester County Rotary Club.

The two Rotary Clubs raised $15,000 with the help of the matching grant to buy 10 looms, tools, and wool for the training center.

Despite continued unrest in the region, materials still flow to Spin Boldak, allowing more and more of its residents to learn to weave. In March, 90 men and women, mostly in their 20s and 30s, had graduated from the two-month training program.

Prabhu says the clubs are now hoping to cooperate with another nonprofit to sell the rugs internationally, which will allow those in the program to concentrate more on the actual weaving and less on the marketing and selling of the carpets.

Wanted: 2009-2010 exchange students

By Linda Messer, Youth Exchange Committee chairman

"It's the most wonderful time of the year." Do you remember that old Staples commercial with the dad kicking up his heels while buying school supplies for his children? I do, and I still have school-age children, so September is a wonderful month for me. No more, "Mom, there's nothing to do here" (whine in your own head, I know you know what I mean)!

Anyway, this is an important time of year for the District Youth Exchange program. This past weekend we held orientation for our 10 new youth exchange students. They are quite a group and we look forward to a great year with them.

Our program is progressing and two clubs have stepped up to the plate and offered to help with two separate programs: the Christmas Program and a tour of the Constitution Center later in the year. More clubs are welcome and we always need help and fresh ideas.

More importantly, September- November are the months that we look for long-term exchange students to participate in the long-term program for the 2009-10 school year. We have spoken with several students and have applications in the works, but we can always entertain more.

For the student's best possible chance of receiving placement in their "top- two" country selections, the student application, interview by the club and interview by the District should all be completed by early December. We will continue to accept applications through mid-March of 2009. The long-term program is one in which the student attends school in his or her host country, lives with a host family throughout the year and experiences the language and culture of that country first hand. Ask any student who has participated and they will tell you that this is a life changing program.

Short-term programs are also available and we begin to receive applications in October (through early May) for this program. The short-term program is a one-on-one program where matches are made and the two students spend four to six weeks here in the District with our student's family and then four to six weeks abroad in the other student's home.

This is great program for students who are not sure they can or want to commit to a full-year program. It does require that the family here host a foreign student. Students in both programs must be between the ages of 15 1/2 and 18 1/2 upon their departure.

So, district friends, the Youth Exchange Committee challenges each of the 55 clubs in District 7450 to find one prospective candidate for the Youth Exchange program, long-term or short-term.

Are you up for the challenge? If so and you need help, please contact Messer, District Youth Exchange Committee chair, 484-433-7951; lindamess@comcast.net

Exchange Student shares experiences

Juliette Maas, daughter of Kennett at Longwood Rotarian Jackie Maas, was the club's 2007-08 exchange student through Rotary. She reported on her experiences in a well-delivered visual presentation of her 10 months in Barcelona, Spain at a recent Rotary Club meeting.

She said she lived about five miles out of the city center with a family who had a daughter in Chicago also via Rotary. She not only had to learn Spanish but Catalan dialect.

Her Spanish family nicknamed her "Paparazzi" because she always had her camera with her. Juliette told the club she hopes that Rotary will always sponsor students as the program achieves its goals and offers an incredible experience for those who participate.

Ardmore Rotary seeks unused but useable musical instruments

Ardmore Rotary and Musicopia (formerly Strings for Schools) are joining forces to search out district Rotarians who have unused but still useable instruments and music stands for eventual distribution to elementary schools in the region. All instruments will be repaired and refurbished to ensure excellent sound when played properly.

Ardmore Rotary collected over 75 instruments three years ago which Musicopia of Radnor refurbished and provided to Meade School in North Philadelphia. As a result, Meade School has a brass and strings musical program and the students have given concerts at Temple University. As a result of the success of the Meade School music program, three nearby elementary schools have expressed a desire to initiate music programs in their schools. All that is needed are the instruments.

Rotarians with unused but useable instruments are asked to consider giving a child the gift of learning to play an instrument and call Welthie Fitzgerald, executive advisor and founder of Musicopia, at 644-1676 or contact her at Welthie@comcast.net. Arrangements will be made to collect the instrument. Or contact Ardmore Rotarian Tom Stuart at 610-525-3743; or Joan Toenniessen at mombugjoan@msn.com.

Philadelphia Rotary gets kudos for 'camp' for student writers

"We at the Philadelphia Writing Project are very proud of what the students at our 2008 Summer Writing Camp were able to accomplish. The pupils we attracted were delightful and diligent and enthusiastic about improving their writing skills.

"The funding from the Rotary Club of Philadelphia and the matching grant from District 7450 Rotary were critical to the existence of this program. Because so many families in Philadelphia are not able to pay what it really costs to run such a program, we continue to find it difficult to imagine offering this opportunity for young people to improve their writing skills without some kind of subsidy.

"So, please know that we count the Philadelphia Rotary and Rotary District 7450 as dear friends and important benefactors. Your encouragement and your sincerity and commitment to changing the status quo of illiteracy are much appreciated.

"Thank you for all of your support and please let our Rotary colleagues know that their support is not taken for granted. Their generosity will have a lasting legacy in the advanced literacy lives of the children who participated in this project at the Rotary's expense.

Thank you, again."

West Chester Rotarian sponsors Travis MayoDistrict committee nominates Peace Fellow

Travis Mayo has been unanimously nominated for a prestigious 2009-2011 Peace Fellowship by the District 7450 Peace Fellowship Committee. Sponsored by Gary Hess of the West Chester Rotary Club, Travis awaits the decision from the Rotary International selection committee in late October. If chosen, he would be enrolled in the master's degree for peace and conflict resolution studies at the University of Queensland in Australia or the University of Bradford in the United Kingdom.

The program seeks to train exemplary leaders to promote national and international cooperation, peace and the resolution of conflict throughout their lives and careers.

Mayo is a Penn State graduate who has logged extensive experience with HIV/AIDS prevention working for the United States Peace Corps in South Africa. He is fluent in German and can actually converse a bit in Zulu.

"Travis Mayo has great enthusiasm and commitment to improving the lot of others and working to overcome injustices is what he wants his lifetime career to be." Stated committee member Tom McCarthy.

"Travis has a deep appreciation of the central place of thoughtful planning among policy makers if successful sustainable development is to be achieved, of the critical need for outcomes research before pouring resources into ongoing projects, and of valuing small victories in the field. Travis also demonstrated knowledge of his obligations to Rotary should he be awarded the scholarship. More than that, he was emphatic that he would value a long term relationship with Rotary."

Anne Hansen, District 7450 committee member, added, "It was a pleasure to interview Travis Mayo. Travis is an intelligent, articulate, and personable individual, one who would represent our District and Rotary International as an outstanding future Peace Fellow. His work for the past two years with the Peace Corp has given him important hands on experience with the HIV-Aids epidemic in South Africa. He has reached a new (perhaps realistic) level of the limits projects have had that make a significant difference.

"He is interested in evaluations of existing programs, thereby strengthening those programs and finding real solutions and more efficient use of resources. He understands the role of NGO's, both their strengths and weaknesses, and is keen to be active in human rights activities. I think, he is at the point where direct study of conflict and strategies toward resolution would give him the tools to be a very effective future leader."

Mayo spoke passionately of his work with HIV awareness programs and acknowledged the difficulty of implementing programs which have ongoing effectiveness. Noted committee member Lee Bowie, "His desire to work with Human Rights Watch or the Council on Foreign Affairs during this interim period (while he awaits the Peace Fellowship decision) shows that he is thinking ahead of how his career goals fit in with employment choices. In short, I feel that Travis is a very strong candidate this year and would make an excellent Rotary World Peace Fellow."

District 7450 chairperson Joe Batory concluded, "Travis is a young man with a deep sense of understanding and commitment to the principles and ideals of the Rotary Peace Fellowship. His experience with the Peace Corps has grounded him in the realities of humanitarian work in the field but he exudes a depth of knowledge about the necessary linkages of policy and government in trying to evoke positive change.

"He has a sound grasp of the 'real world' challenges of finding peaceful solutions to complex problems within the context of conflicting ideas and philosophies. In summary, Travis Mayo has 'the right stuff.' It is his life quest to make a difference for the better in the arena of humanitarian need. Idealistic, intellectual, caring, moral and diligent....he would make an Ideal Peace Fellow!"

Where's my newsletter?

If you know a Rotarian asking where his or her District Newsletter is, we are asking Rotarians who have access to computers and the Rotary7450.org website to take a few minutes and print a copy (or two or three) of the newsletter and give them to the Rotarian(s) who asked the question.

And if you know there are members in your club who are not computer savvy, we ask you to print copies and place them on the sergeant-at-arms table.

Thank you.
